2026 CALL FOR ENTRIES

38th Annual International Aerospace Art Exhibition

Selected works will be the best submitted by artists from around the world. In addition to ASAA sponsored awards, separately sponsored awards such as that by ForeFeatherstm Enterprises will be awarded.

RULES FOR ARTIST ENTRANTS

Entry Deadline: Entries must be received by 11:59 p.m. U.S. Eastern Standard Time, Sunday, July 12, 2026

Artists are responsible for the legal and ethical integrity of their artwork. An artwork may be rejected by jurors if, in the jurors' opinions, the artwork appears to be derived from another's art (including copyrighted or public domain photography even when express permission has been given by the copyright owner). ASAA encourages originality and therefore discourages the direct copy of photos and any work so derived runs the risk of rejection by the jurors.

All participants warrant that their work will be their own creation and never plagiarize the work of others, nor infringe upon the copyrights of artists, photographers or other entities.

Slides are no longer accepted.

Accepted artwork submitted not exhibiting the quality indicated in the scanned digital image will be disqualified by the hanging committee.

Who May Enter: All artists are invited to submit entries for this juried exhibition. Only the artist creator may submit the artwork. Publishers, galleries, agents, and collectors may not submit artwork on behalf of artists. If the work is not currently in the artist's possession, it will be the artist's responsibility to ensure availability and arrange for shipping of the work in time to meet deadlines.

Theme and Eligibility: This is an open theme exhibition and artwork depicting any aerospace subject is eligible. Works appearing in prior ASAA exhibits are ineligible. Only original artwork will be accepted. Computer generated art is ineligible. Photography, or any process derived from the use of photographs, photo-offset lithographs, giclées, computer graphics, or other reproductions will not be accepted. True fine art prints are acceptable. includes etchings, serigraphs, stone lithographs, woodcuts, all of which are hand printed one at a time.

AWARDS

Artists are encouraged to paint for specific awards such as the Capt. Duane Whitney Martin Award.

Listed below are some of the awards anticipated for the exhibition. There may be others, so check the ASAA website www.asaa-avart.org for updates. If an ASAA artist entering the exhibition at the ASAA entry fee rate receives an ASAA Award and has not paid their dues, the dues amount will be deducted from the award amount.

Sculptural entries must give overall dimensions on the entry form. Accepted artwork submitted not exhibiting the quality indicated in the scanned digital image will be disqualified by the hanging committee.

HOW TO ENTER

There is no limit on the number of entries submitted but only a maximum of two entries per artist will be juried into the exhibition. Entry is by scanned digital images only, of original art (slides are no longer accepted). Entry forms may be submitted by mail with CD or online submission with scanned digital entries. Payment may be made by check if by mail, or by credit card if by on-line submission (for those entrants with internet access). Online submission of entry information is encouraged, even if you are submitting a CD.

On-line registration will be available on or before 1 March 2026

Media:

Digital images: Digital images of the original art may be submitted online or on a CD or jump drive. Images must be sized to fit within a 1500 X 3500 pixels image area at 300 dpi and are in JPEG format. All entries may be submitted on the same CD or jump drive.

Do not send original art, photoprints, giclées or lithographs for jurying.

ENTRY FORMS

Online Forms:

On-line registration will be available on or before 1 March 2026. Online submission of entry information is encouraged even if you are submitting CDs by mail. To submit online, go to the ASAA website www.asaa-avart.org, follow the link to "Exhibit Entry Info" and select "Entry Form 2026". You will be asked to fill out the form and submit it. There will be space for description of the artwork, and an artist biography. You may prepare this information in a text editor, offline, and use cut & paste to enter the information into the form if you wish. If you would like to submit your scanned images at this time, there will be a place on the form allowing you to upload your images. A high-speed Internet connection should make this process quick and simple.

Paper Forms: Completely fill out the entry form. Make copies if necessary. Use one (1) entry form and a digital scan on CD for each entry. There is no limit on the number of entries submitted but a maximum of only 2 artworks for any artist can be accepted. A 100 word (or less), description of the subject matter and a 100 word (or less), biography must be submitted. ASAA retains the right to alter painting descriptions or biographies for length or readability.

If you would like your CD or jump drive returned, please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Entry fee: The entry fee is $25 per entry for ASAA members and $45 per entry for non-members. Please write only one (1) check made payable to "ASAA Exhibit" to cover all of your entries. If you are willing to use the PayPal credit card service, you may make a secure online payment of your entry fees by credit card by going to the ASAA website www.asaa-avart.org, follow the link to "Exhibit Entry Info" and select "Cashier." Those of you with an existing PayPal account can simply send payment to treasurer@asaa-avart.org

Only ASAA members whose dues are paid in full by the Call for Entry deadline qualify for the $25 per entry ASAA discount rate. All other entrants pay the $45 per entry rate. Dues and entry fees can be paid by check or online at the ASAA Cashier page (click here <https://asaa-avart.com/cashier>)

DEADLINES AND NOTIFICATIONS

Completed entry forms, media, and entry fees must be received by 11:59 p.m. U.S. Eastern Standard Time, Sunday, July 12, 2026. Entries received after that date will be returned unjuried. Entrants will be notified whether their artwork has been accepted or not by letter to be mailed/e-mailed by August 1, 2026.

"Gallery wrap" framing is permitted but must be professionally presented. No staples or tacks are allowed to show on the sides of the gallery wrapped frame.

SHIPPING AND INSURANCE

Artists are responsible for shipping and insurance of their artwork to the exhibition. Return Shipping and insurance of artwork will be paid for artists attending the annual forum. If ASAA obtains sponsorship for the return shipping, shipping will be covered for all ASAA members and all forum attendees. Join ASAA as an Associate Member to qualify for member return shipping privileges.

All ASAA paintings for US and Canadian artists will be shipped by UPS or FedEx Ground, insured. Be sure your return address is a street address accepting UPS or FedEx delivery.

Return shipping and insurance fee will be limited to a maximum of $200 per piece.

Artists are solely responsible for all shipping arrangements. The host venue will not be involved in transactions that require banking is-sues needed to resolve shipping concerns or problems.
